Dear parents,

Please find below a short update around a few things at school.

Trading Cards

At the start of this school year many of our children are bringing trading cards into school. At this point in time we do not have an issue with this as the children enjoy looking at their cards, talking about them and swapping them. In our experience, trading cards in school, can become an issue when swaps are made and then children change their minds and/or items go missing.

We would ask, as trading cards are so popular at the moment that no rare or treasured cards come into school. That parents discourage children from swapping cards and help their child to understand that if a card is swapped it's not always possible to get it back if you change your mind. That the school is not responsible for items that go missing, although we will always do our best to make sure this doesn't happen.

Wraparound Care

Please would parents who use our wraparound care, before and after school, please only make bookings Monday to Friday. Please do not book children into wraparound care at the weekend for Monday morning. Weekend bookings mean we can't effectively plan for the following week. Thank you.

Bank Holiday

I am sure you are aware that the date for the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II is Monday 19th September. As a result a Bank Holiday has been declared on this date. Therefore school will be closed on Monday 19th September 2022.

Regards,

Mark Whyman
